STINGERS

Sept. 16, 2002

Concordia Athletes of the Week

Marie-Claude Allard of the women's soccer team and Ben Ouimet of the football team have been named Concordia Stinger athletes of the week for the period ending Sept. 15.

Allard, a fifth year forward, scored a hat trick in this past weekend's game. The 23 year-old helped the Stingers to a 3-3 draw with the Bishop's Gaiters. Allard might be the first Stinger female athlete to have a hat trick in two sports. Last season, Allard was named to the first team All-Canadian list in women's hockey. Allard, has four goals in two games. Allard, a native of Quebec City, Que., is a majoring in psychology at Concordia.

Ouimet, is a fifth-year runningback with the Stingers. In his team's 37-19 Inter-Conference loss to the Acadia Axemen, he collected 99 yards on three receptions with one touchdown. Ouimet, a native of Joliette, Que., is an Arts student at Concordia.
